

HISTORY OF TENNIS BALL CRICKET GAME

A game quite similar to Cricket had been in existence in India and played since many years in the past even much earlier than the game started in Asian Countries such as Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Nepal, Hong Kong, Thailand and Kenya. However, there is no definite record of its origin in India as to when Tennis ball Cricket was first started in India and in Asian Countries as well.

The first Tennis Ball Cricket body was framed in 1982 by Late N. U. Siddiqui, known as Tennis Ball Cricket Federation of India or (TBCFI). In fact Tennis Ball Cricket was more popular in Mumbai, Gujrat, U.P, Bihar due to the enthusiasm of the public and their love for the players as well as for the game.

Gujarat renowned as Marco of India for this game, but the game spread and gained popularity in other parts of the country & abroad. The game gained popularity being cheap & short time duration. The game looks more exciting and thrilling in flood lights. The game is being played by both Men & Women Catagories.

Finally the Tennis Ball Cricket Federation of India (TBCFI) was framed in 1994 in letter and spirit. An Indian team visited Bangladesh, Honkong and Bangkok under this authority. The U.P. under the dynamic leadership of Shri A.A. Lari played a very significant role in conducting various Federation/National level championships before its recognition from the Govt. of India. He also invited various teams from abroad to play in India before its recognition. Pertinent to mention that Dr. B.K. Sinha (IPS) President, TBCFI has played a significant and decisive role and succeeded in recognizing this game from the Union Ministry. The Federation was finally recognized by the Union Govt. on 23rd of April 1999.

The TBCFI organises National Championships in all age Groups i.e. Sub-Junior, Junior, Senior in every year besides Federation All India tournaments for both Groups.

The striker being caught, no run shall be scored; a batsman being run out, that run which was being attempted shall not be scored.

NOTES :

- I. If while a ball is in play, the batsman have crossed in running, neither returns to the wicket he has left except in case of a boundary hit, or a boundary from extras, or under Laws 23 Note I and Law 3 Note XI. This rule applies even should a short run have been called, or should no run be reckoned as in the case of a catch.
- II. A run is 'short' if either, or both, batsman fail to make good their ground in turning for a further run. Although such a 'short' run shortens the succeeding one, the latter, if completed, counts. Similarly a batsman taking stance in front of his popping crease may run from that point without penalty.
- III. (a) One run only is deducted if both batsman are short in one end for the same run.
(b) Only if three or more runs are attempted can more than one run be 'short' and then, subject to (a) above, all runs so called shall be disallowed.
- IV. If either or both batsman deliberately run short, the umpire is justified in calling "Dead Ball" and disallowing any runs attempted or scored as soon as he sees that the fielding side have no chance of dismissing either batsman under the Laws.

- V. An umpire signals 'Short' runs when the ball becomes 'dead' by bending his arm upwards to touch the shoulder with the tips of his fingers. If there has been more than one 'short' run the umpire must instruct the scorers as to the number of runs disallowed. (See Note 1 to Law 4)

BOUNDARIES

Law 14 - Before the toss, the umpires shall agree with both sides on the Boundaries for play and on the allowances to be made for them. The Boundary shall if possible be marked along its whole length. An Umpire shall call or signal 'Boundary' whenever in his opinion, a ball in play hits, crosses or is carried over the Boundary. The runs completed at the instant the ball reaches the Boundary shall count only should they exceed the allowance, but if the 'Boundary' result from an overthrow or from the wilful act of a fielder any run already made and the allowance shall be added to the score.

NOTES :

- I. If flags or posts are used to mark a boundary, the real or imaginary line joining such points shall be regarded as the boundary, which should be marked a white line if possible
- II. It is a 'Boundary' if the ball touches any boundary line or if a fielder with ball in hand grounds any part of his person on or over that line. A fielder, however, standing within the playing area, may lean against or touch boundary fence in fielding a ball (See Law 32 Note 5.)
- III. An obstacle, or person, within the playing area is not regarded as a boundary unless so arranged by the umpires. The Umpire is not a boundary but side screens within the playing area shall be so regarded. The customary allowance for a boundary is 4 runs. The six (6) in Tennis Ball Cricket does not allow. Any batsman hitting the ball out of the ground in air shall be declared as 'Rule Out'. The batsman shall not be declared as 'Rule Out' on a No Ball which has been called by an umpire. In such a case only 1 run of No Ball will be counted in the score.

IV. In the case of a boundary resulting from either an overthrow or the willful act of a fieldsman the run in progress shall be counted provided that the batsmen crossed at the instant of the throw or act.

V. The umpire signals 'Boundary' by waving an arm from side to side.

LOST BALL

Law 15 - If a ball in play can not be found or recovered any fieldsman may call 'Lost Ball', the ball shall then become dead. The umpires shall replace the ball with one which has had wear comparable with that which the previous ball has received before it was lost or become irrecoverable.

THE RESULT

Law 16 - A match is won by the side which shall have scored a total number of runs in excess of that scored by the opposing side in its complete innings. A match shall be lost by a side which either concedes defeat or in the opinion of the umpire refuses to play and the umpires shall award the match to the other side.

NOTES :

- (i) It is the responsibility of the captains to satisfy themselves on the correctness of the scores on the conclusion of their innings.
- (ii) The result of a finished matches is stated as a win by runs, except in the case of a win by the side batting lost, when it is by the number of wickets still then to fall.
- (iii) A 'Draw' is regarded as a 'Tie' when the scores are equal at the conclusion of play but only if the match has been played out. If the scores of the completed innings of both the sides are equal, it is a 'Tie', but only if the match has not been played out the further conclusion.

THE OVER

Law 17 - The ball shall be bowled from each wicket alternately in overs of 6 balls without 'No Ball' and 'Wide Ball'. An over shall start when the bowler starts his run up or, if he has no run up, his delivery action for the first delivery of that over. When 6 balls have been bowled other than those which are not to count in the over and as the ball becomes dead, the umpire shall call 'Over' in a distinct manner before leaving the wicket.

A Bowler shall finish an 'Over' in progress unless he be incapacitated or be suspended for unfair play. He shall be allowed to change ends as often as desired. Provided only that he should not bowl Two , 'Overs' consecutively in one innings. A Bowler may require the Batsman at the wicket from which his bowling to stand on whichever side of it he may direct.

DEAD BALL

Law 18 - The ball shall be held to be 'Dead' -on being in the opinion of the umpire finally stilled in the hands of the wicket keeper or of the bowler; or on reaching or pitching over the boundary; or, whether played or not, on lodging in the dress of either a Batsman or Umpire; or on the call of 'Over' or 'Time' by the umpire; or on a Batsman being out from any cause; or on any penalty being awarded under Laws 15 or 37. The Umpire shall call , 'Dead Ball' should he decide to intervene under Law 3 in the case of unfair play or in the event of a serious injury to a player; or should he require suspend play prior to the 'Striker' receiving a delivery .The ball shall cease to be 'Dead' the Bowler starting his run or his bowling action.

NOTES:

- I. When the ball is 'finally settled' is a question of fact for the umpire alone to decide.
- II. An umpire is justified in suspending play prior to the striker receiving a delivery in any of the following circumstances:-
 - i) If satisfied that, for an adequate reason, the striker is not ready to receive the ball and makes no attempt to play it.
 - ii) If the bowler drops the ball accidentally before delivery or if the ball does not leave his hand for any reason.
 - iii) If one or both bails fall from the striker's wicket before he receives the delivery. In such cases the ball is regarded as 'Dead' from the time it last came into play.
- III. A ball does not become 'Dead' when it strikes an umpire (unless it lodges in his dress), when the wicket is broken or struck down (unless a batsman is out thereby), or when an unsuccessful appeal is made.

- IV. For the purpose of this and other Laws, the term 'dress' includes the clothing of the players and umpires as normally worn.

NO BALL

Law 19 - For a delivery to be fair the ball must be bowled, not thrown or jerked; if either umpire be not entirely satisfied of the absolute fairness of the delivery in this respect, he shall call and signal 'No Ball' instantly upon delivery. The umpire at the Bowler's wicket shall call and signal 'No Ball' if he is not satisfied that at the instant of delivery, the Bowler as at least some part of one foot behind the Bowling Crease and within the return crease, and not touching or grounded over either crease. The umpire shall ascertain whether the bowler to bowl right handed or left handed, over or round the wicket and shall so inform the striker. It is unfair, if the bowler fails to notify the umpire, of a change in his mode of delivery. In this case the umpire shall call and signal 'No Ball'. Underarm bowling shall not be permitted except by special agreement before the match.

NOTES :

- I. Subject to the provisions of the Law being complied with a bowler is not debarred from delivering the ball with both feet behind the bowling crease.
- II. The striker is entitled to know whether the bowler intends to ball over or round the wicket over-arm or under arm, right or left handed. An umpire may regard any failure to notify a change in the mode of delivery as 'Unfair', if so, he should call 'No ball'.
- III. It is a 'No ball' if the bowler before delivering a ball throws it at the strikers wicket even in an attempt to run him out.
- IV. If a bowler breaks the near wicket with any part of his person during the delivery, such act in itself does not constitute 'No Ball'
- V. The umpire should revoke the call 'No Ball' if the ball does not leave the bowler's hand for any reason.
- VI. The umpire signals 'No Ball' by extending one arm horizontally.

Law 20 - Ball does not become 'Dead' on the call of 'No Ball' The Striker may hit a 'No Ball' and whatever runs result shall be added to his score in addition to a run of 'No Ball' and shall be scored as 'No Balls' The striker shall be out from a 'No Ball' if he breaks Law 30 and either batsman may be run out, or given out, if he breaks Laws 29 or 33

NOTES :

- (I) The penalty for a No ball is scored also if runs result otherwise.
- (II) Law 3 Note XIII covers attempts to run before the ball is delivered, but should the nonstriker unfairly leave his ground too soon, the fielding side may run out the batsman at the bowler's end by any recognized method. If the bowler throws at the near wicket, he does not call 'no Ball' though any runs resulting or so scored. The throw does not count in the 'Over'

WIDE BALL

Law 21 - If the Bowler shall bowl the ball so high over or so wide of the wicket that in the opinion of the Umpire it passes out of reach of the Striker, and would not have been within the reach of the batsman taking guard in the normal position, the umpire shall call and signal 'Wide Ball' as soon as it shall have passed the striker.

NOTES :

- (I) If a ball which the umpire considers to have been delivered comes to rest in front of the striker 'Wide' should not be called, and no runs should be added to the score unless they result from the Striker hitting the ball which he has a right to do without interference by the fielding side. Should the fielding side interfere, the umpire is justified in replacing the ball where it comes to rest and ordering the fieldsman to resume the places they occupied in the field before the ball was delivered.
- (II) The umpire signals 'Wide' by extending both arms horizontally.
- (III) An umpire shall revoke the call if the striker hits a ball which has been called wide.

Law 22 - The Ball does not become Dead on the call of 'Wide Ball'. All runs that are run from a wide ball shall be scored 'Wide Balls', or if no runs be made one run shall be so scored. The striker may be out from a 'Wide Ball' if he breaks Laws 35 or 39, and either Batsman may be run out or given out if he breaks Laws 33 or 37.

BYE AND LEG BYES

Law 23 - If the Ball not having been called 'Wide' or 'No Balls' pass the Striker without touching his bat or person, and any runs be obtained the umpire shall call or signal 'Bye'; but if the ball touches any part of the striker's dress or person except his hand holding the bat and any run be obtained, the umpire shall call or signal 'Leg Bye'; such runs to be scored 'Byes' and 'Leg Byes' respectively.

NOTES :

- (I) The umpire shall regard the deliberated deflection of the ball by any part of the striker's person, except the hand holding the bat as Unfair, and as soon as he is satisfied that the fielding side have no chance of dismissing either batsman as an immediate result of such action, he shall, without delay, call 'dead ball'. In deciding whether such deflection is deliberate, the criterion shall be whether or not the batsman has attempted to play with his bat.
- (II) The Umpire signals 'Bye' by raising an open hand above the head, and 'Leg Bye' by touching a raised knee with the hand.

THE WICKET IS DOWN

Law 24 - The wicket shall be held to be 'Down' if either the ball or the Striker's bat or person completely removes either bail from the top of the stumps, or, if both bails be off, strikes a stump out of the ground. Any player may use his hand or arm to put the wicket down or, even should the bails be previously off, may pull up a stump, provided always that the ball is held in the hand or hands so used.

NOTES :

- (I) A wicket is not 'down' merely on account of the disturbance of a bail, but it is 'down' if a ball is falling from the wicket lodges between two of the stumps
- (II) If one bail is off, it is sufficient for the purpose of this Law to dislodge the remaining one in any of the ways stated, or to strike any of the three stumps out of the ground.
- (III) If, owing to the strength of the wind, the captains have agreed to dispense with the use of bails (See Law 8 Note 2), the decision as to when the wicket is "down" is one of the umpires to decide on the facts before them. In such circumstances the wicket would be held to be 'down' even though a stump has not been struck out of the ground.
- (IV) If the wicket is broken while the ball is in play it is not the Umpire's duty to remake the wicket until the ball has become 'dead'. However a fieldsmen may remake the wicket in such circumstances
- (V) For the purpose of this and other Laws the term 'person' includes a player's dress as defined in Law 18, Note IV.

NOTES :

- (I) Provided the ball does not touch the ground, the hand holding may do so in effecting a catch.
- (II) The umpire is justified in disregarding the fact that the ball has touched the ground, or has been carried over the boundary provide that a catch has in fact been completed prior to such occurrence.
- (III) The fact that a ball has touched the striker's person before or after touching his bat does not invalidate a catch.

No runs except those which result from an overthrow shall be scored from a ball lawfully struck twice.

NOTES:

- (I) It is for the umpire to decide whether the ball has been so struck a second time legitimately or not. The umpire may regard the fact that a run is attempted as evidence of the batsman's intension to take advantage of the second stroke, but it is not conclusive.
- (II) A batsman may not attempt to hit the ball twice, if in so doing he baulks the wicket keeper or any fieldsman attempting to make a catch.
- (III) This Law infringed if the striker, after playing the ball and without any request from the opposite side, uses his bat to return the ball to a fieldsman.
- (IV) The Correct entry in the score book when the striker is given out under this Law is 'Hit the ball twice, and the bowler does not get credit for the wicket.

HIT WICKET

Law 31 - The Striker is out 'Hit wicket', if while playing the ball he hit down his wicket with his bat or any part of his person.

NOTES :

- (I) The Striker is 'Out' under this Law if:-
 - (i) In making a second stroke to keep the ball out of his wicket he hits it down.
 - (ii) While Playing at the ball, but not other wise, his wicket is broken by his cap or hat falling, or by part of his bat.
 - (iii) A batsman is not out for breaking the wickets with his bat or person while in the act of running.

L.B.W

Law 32 - Striker is out 'Leg Before Wicket', if with any part of his person except his hand, which is in a straight line 'between wicket and wicket, even though the point of impact be above the level of the bails, he intercepts a ball which has not first touched his bat or hand which, in the opinion of the umpire, shall have, or would have, pitched on a straight line from the Bowler's wicket to the Striker's wicket, or shall have pitched on the off side of the strikers wicket, provided always that the ball would have hit the wicket.

NOTES :

- (I) The word used in this Law should be interpreted as the hand holding the bat
- (II) A batsman is only 'Out' under this Law if all the four following questions are answered in the affirmative.
 - (i) Would the Ball have hit the wicket?
 - (ii) Did the ball pitch on a straight line between wicket and wicket or did it pitch on the offside of the striker's wicket?
 - (iii) Was it part of the striker's person other than the hand which first intercepted the ball?
 - (iv) Was that part of the striker's person in a straight line between wicket and wicket at the moment of impact, irrespective of the height of the point of impact?

OBSTRUCTING THE FIELD

Law 33 - Either Batsman is out 'Obstructing the field', if the batsman wilfully obstruct the opposite side; should such wilfull obstruction by either Batsman prevent a ball from being caught it is the striker who is out.

NOTES :

- (I) The umpire must decide whether the obstruction was 'Wilful' or not. The involuntary interception by a batsman while running of a throw in is not in itself an offence.
- (II) The correct entry in the score book when a batsman is given out under this Law is 'Obstructing the field', and the bowler does not get credit for the wicket.

RUNOUT

Law 34 - Either Batsman is out 'Run Out', if in running or at any time, while the ball is in play, he be out of his ground, and his wicket be put down by the opposite side. If the batsmen have crossed each other, he that runs for the wicket which is put down is out; if they have not crossed, he that has left the wicket which is put down is out. But unless he attempt to run, the Striker shall not be given 'Run out' in the circumstances stated in Law 35 even should 'No Ball' have been called.

Note:

If the ball is played on to the opposite wicket, neither batsman is liable to be 'Run out' unless the ball has been touched by a fieldsman before the wicket is put down.

STUMPED

Law 35 - A striker is out 'Stumped' if in receiving a ball, not being a 'No Ball', delivered by the Bowler, he be out of his ground otherwise than in attempting a run, and the wicket be put down by the wicket-keeper without the intervention of another fieldsman. Only when the ball has touched the bat or person of the Striker may the wicket keeper take it in front of wicket for this purpose.

Note:

The striker may be 'Stumped' if the wicket is broken by a ball rebounding from the wicket-keeper's person.

THE WICKET-KEEPER

Law 36 - The wicket-keeper shall remain wholly behind the wicket until a ball delivered by the Bowler touches the bat or person of the Striker, or passes the wicket, or until the Striker attempts a run. Should the wicket-keeper contravene this Law, the Striker shall not be out except under Laws 29, 30, 33 and 34 and then only subject to Law 3.

NOTES :

This law is provided to secure to the striker his right to play the ball and to guard his wicket without interference from the wicket keeper. The Striker may not be penalized if in the legitimate defence of his wicket he interferes with the wicket keeper, except as provided for in Law 30 Note II.

THE FIELDSMAN

Law 37 - The Fieldsman may stop the ball with any part of his person, but if he willfully stop it otherwise, five runs shall be added to the run or runs already made; if no run has been made five shall be scored. The penalty shall be added to the score of the striker if the ball has been struck, but otherwise to the score of Byes, Leg byes, No Balls or Wides as the case may be.

NOTES :

- (I) A fieldsman must not use his cap etc., for the purpose of fielding a ball.
- (II) The five runs are a penalty and the batsman do not change ends.

APPEALS

Law 38 - The Umpires shall not order a Batsman out unless appealed to by the Fieldsmen which shall be done prior to the delivery of the next ball, and before 'Time' is called under Law 12. The Umpire at the Bowler's wicket shall answer appeals before the other umpire in all cases except those arising out of Laws 31 or 35 and out of Law 34 for run out at the Striker's Wicket. In any case in which an umpire is unable to give a decision, he shall consult the other umpire whose decision shall be final.

NOTES :

- (I) An appeal "How is that?" covers all ways of being out unless a specific way of getting out is stated by the person asking. When either umpire has given a batsman 'Not Out' the other umpire may answer any appeal within his jurisdiction, provided it is made in time.
- (II) The umpire signals 'Out' by raising the Index finger above the head. If the batsman is not out, the umpire called 'Not out'.
- (III) An umpire may alter his decision provided that such alteration is made promptly.
- (IV) Nothing in this law prevents an umpire before giving a decision from consulting the other umpire on a point of fact which the latter may have been in a better position to observe. An umpire should not appeal to the other umpire in cases on which he could give a decision, merely because he is unwilling to give that decision. If after consultation he is still in any doubt, the principle laid down in Law 3 applies and the decision will be in favour of the batsman.

- (V) The umpire should intervene if satisfied that a batsman, not having been given out, has left his wicket under a misapprehension.
- (VI) Under Law 18 the ball is 'Dead' on 'Over' being called; this does not invalidate an appeal made prior to the first ball of the following 'Over' provided the bails have not been removed by both umpires after 'Time' has been called.

NOTES FOR SCORERS AND UMPIRES

Law 40 - (a) Law 4 explains the status of the scorers in relation to the umpires.

(b) During the progress of the game, if two scorers have been appointed, they should frequently check the total to ensure that the score sheets agree.

(c) The following method of entering 'No Balls' and 'Wides' (Laws 20 & 22) in the score sheet is recommended :-

(i) If no run is scored from the bat off a 'No Ball', the latter should be entered as an 'Extra', and a dot placed in the bowling analysis with a circle round it to show that the ball does not count in the Over.

(ii) If runs are scored from the bat off a 'No Ball', they should be credited to the striker, and entered in the bowling analysis with a circle round the figure. Such runs count against the bowler in his analysis even though the ball does not count Over.

(iii) All runs scored from 'Wide Balls' are entered as 'Extras' and inserted in the bowler's analysis with a cross to indicate that the ball does not count in the over.

Law 41 -The following CODE OF SIGNALLING between the umpires and the scorers have been approved:

- (i) Boundaries : By waving the hand from side to side.
- (ii) The Decision Out : By raising the Index finger above the head.
- (iii) Rule Out : By raising the Index finger above the head.
- (iv) Byes : By raising the open hand above the head.
- (v) Leg Byes : By touching raised knee with the hand.
- (vi) Wides : By extending both arms horizontally.
- (vii) No Balls : By extending one arm horizontally.
- (viii) One Short : By bending the arm upwards and by touching the top of nearest shoulder with the tips of the fingers of one hand.

2. If the above instructions are properly carried out, cases of disagreement as regards the scores and the result of matches should not occur. It is however important that the captains should satisfy themselves of the correctness of the scores on the conclusion of the play, as errors can not subsequently be corrected.

It should be noted that, in general, by accepting the result notified by the scorers, the captain of the losing side has thereby acquiesced (accepted) in the ' Playing out or giving up' of the match as stated in Law 16.
